GOTHIC ARCHITECTURE IN SPAIN: INVENTION AND IMITATION

EDITED BY TOM NICKSON AND NICOLA JENNINGS
Gothic Architecture in Spain: Invention and Imitation
Edited by Tom Nickson and Nicola Jennings
With contributions by:
Henrik Karge
Javier Martínez De Aguirre
Encarna Montero
Amadeo Serra Desfilis
Nicola Jennings
Diana Olivares
Costanza Beltrami
Nicola Menéndez González
Begoña Alonso Ruiz

Acknowledgements

Publication of this e-book was generously supported by Sackler Research Forum of The Courtauld Institute of Art and by the Office of Scientific and Cultural Affairs of the Spanish Embassy in London. Further funds came from the Colnaghi Foundation, which also sponsored the conference from which these papers derive. The editors are especially grateful to Dr Steven Brindle and to the second anonymous reader (from Spain) for their careful reviews of all the essays in this collection. We also thank Andrew Cummings, who carefully copyedited all the texts, as well as Aline Bovey, Maria Mileeva and Grace Williams, who supported this e-book at different stages of its production.
List of Illustrations

Acknowledgements

1. Gothic Architecture in Spain: Invention and Imitation
   Tom Nickson, Courtauld Institute of Art

2. The ‘Sumptuous Style’: Richly Decorated Gothic Churches in the Reign of Alfonso the Learned
   Henrik Karge, Technical University, Dresden

3. The King, the Architects and the Philosopher: Invention in Mallorcan Architecture around 1300
   Javier Martínez de Aguirre, Universidad Complutense de Madrid

4. Architectural Practice in Spain 1370–1450: Documents and Drawings
   Encarna Montero, Universitat de València

5. Patterns of intention: Royal Chapels in the Crown of Aragon (Fourteenth and Fifteenth Centuries) and the Capilla de los Reyes in the Convent of Saint Dominic, Valencia
   Amadeo Serra Desfilis, Universitat de València

6. Inventio and Imitatio: the Appropriation of Valois Style by a Converso Contador Mayor
   Nicola Jennings, Colnaghi Foundation

7. New Functions, New Typologies: Inventio in Valladolid’s College of San Gregorio
   Diana Olivares Martínez, Universidad Complutense de Madrid

8. Imitating a Model, Establishing an Identity: Copying San Juan de los Reyes at San Andrés, Toledo
   Costanza Beltrami, Courtauld Institute of Art

9. Redesigning Miraflores: Simón de Colonia’s Architectural Perception
   Nicolas Menéndez González, Ministerium für Heimat, Kommunale, Bau und Gleichstellung des Landes Nordrhein-Westfalen

10. Hallenkirchen and Spanish Gothic Architecture: Historiographic Invention and Architectural Imitation
    Begoña Alonso Ruiz, Universidad de Cantabria